

Media Alert

13 November 2006

David Hicks' US Marine Lawyer to give final public lecture in Sydney

Major Michael Mori will expose the injustice behind David Hicks' detention at Guantanamo Bay during his final public lecture in Sydney on 13 November 2006.

Major Mori has completed a two-week tour of Australia to raise awareness among Australians of the plight of his client, David Hicks.

"Over the last two weeks support across Australia has been growing for David Hicks to receive a fair trial or be sent home. The Attorneys General, Senators and thousands of Australians are backing this call. Federal Attorney General Philip Ruddock cannot continue to elude justice for David Hicks," said Eva Scheerlinck, Chief Executive Officer, Australian Lawyers Alliance, who is hosting the public forums.

- What: Major Mori Press opportunity, following public forum
- When: Monday 13 November 6:30 pm Public forum 7:30 pm Press opportunity
- Who: Major Michael Mori
Eva Scheerlinck, Australian Lawyers Alliance
Richard Royle, NSW Branch President Australian Lawyers Alliance
- Where: SMC Conference and Function Centre, 66 Goulburn Street, Sydney

ENDS

The Australian Lawyers Alliance is the leading advocate of the rights of individual litigants in the justice system.

Media: Gemma Swart 0414 873 291